

FYCamp 2013 in Norway – July 22 – 27, 2013.

As presented on the FEIF website and on the FEIF youth leader meeting 2013 the FEIF YouthCamp will be arranged the 22nd to the 27th of July in the western part of Norway (between Ålseund and Moldö.) The nearest airport is Moldö airport and from there pick up will be arranged by the hosts.

The FYCamp is hosted by the Norwegian Icelandic Horse Association (NIHF) in cooperation with the Stable Kjersem, stable SP and the local club Vestnes. The lodging will be in twin bed cabins at the Stable Kjersem (one of the top stables in Norway).

The aim of the FYCamp is to bring youngsters together from different countries who all share the passion for the Icelandic horse. Riding is a part of the FYCamp, but just as important is the chance to meet new friends from other countries as well as getting to know the host country and activities that are common in that country.

In Norway it will be a week full of different activities such as:

- 2 riding tours in the magnificent Norwegian mountains on Icelandic horses,
- hiking on one of the most beautiful mountains in Norway, with a guide who has conquered Mount Everest ,
- evening clinics on how to break in a horse from the beginning,
- a one day visit to the World Champion Stian Pedersen's stable,
- a bath in wood-fired hot tub,
- sightseeing and shopping in the city of Ålesund,
- riding training for a local competition,
- a visit to the Geiranger fjord – the jewel of the magnificent Norwegian fjords (since 1995 a UNESCO World Heritage site),
- barbecue evenings and so on!

Eligible to this FYCamp are youngsters 12-18 years old, and every member country is entitled to send 2 youngsters, maybe more so please make a waiting list as well.

The price is EUR 550/participant and EUR 280/leader. All countries which send more than 2 youngsters have to send a country leader. Those countries which do not send a leader must appoint a country leader out of the other coming country leaders. – Please contact the other youth leaders and make the adequate arrangements for this and fill in the name of the country leader on your application form.

The application deadline is the 20th of April, please use the application form which is attached to this letter, - including number of youngsters on the waiting list.

The participants application deadline as well as the payment deadline is the 10th of May, please use the application form attached to this letter.

See you in Norway!

Anne Levander
FEIF Director of Youth Work

Ingrid Haugen
Youth leader Norway

FEIF DIRECTOR OF YOUTH WORK

